

It is not your duty to protect the interests of American commerce, they do quite well on their own. Please do not give some ersatz "free-speech right" of telemarketers weight compared to the legitimate right of we citizens to be left alone.

Thank you.